Melinda: "The First Lady of Magic." She has done what no other woman had done before, playing the showrooms of Vegas continuously for the past nine years - a record not Siegfried & Roy or David Copperfield can lay claim to.

1995 has been quite a year for Melinda. Earlier this year, she was inducted into the Magic and childhood as Melinda magically recreates nights spent with her grandmother; "Jungle Heat" - set against the throbbing rhythms of rain forest drums, Melinda performs breathtaking illusions with a dramatic conclusion that unfolds like a cliffhanger novel; and the unforgettable "Bearable Lightness of Childhood" - a touching piece that sees Melinda floating high above the stage with a hand-picked child from the audience.

These are just a few of the new spectacles that Melinda has in store for audiences around the world. Of course, dazzling her fans is nothing new for "The First Lady." The twenty-something illusionist has been doing magic since her childhood days, never giving up the dream that a lady magician could someday make it to the top.

Melinda's show is currently playing to sold out audiences at the Lady Luck Casino Hotel downtown. General Manager, Jim Dickstein states, "The production has become world class, evolving over the last three years to its current state-of-the art blend of emotionally moving theatre." He adds, "That's why even with eleven shows weekly, Tuesday through Sunday, audiences still can't get enough of this 'First Lady.'"

Shows are at 8 & 10:30 p.m. nightly with only an 8 p.m. show on Sundays. The early show is for families and the late show is topless. The showroom is dark Mondays. Tickets are $24.95 plus tax and include two drinks. V.I.P. tickets are $29.95 and include two drinks, an autographed poster and guests get to meet Melinda after the show. Phone (702) 477-3000 for ticket reservations and additional information.
